

ViveBene presents The Collaborative Divorce Institute

Introduction to Providing Successful Collaborative Divorce Services: The Full Interdisciplinary Team Model

Experienced practitioners, coaches and trainers of the Full Team Interdisciplinary Collaborative Divorce Model, Vicki Carpel Miller, LMFT and Ellie Izzo, PhD are offering a half-day presentation for legal, mental health, and financial professionals who have an interest in learning more about the Full Team Model of Collaborative Divorce.

Introduction to Providing Successful Collaborative Divorce Services will explain the Full Team Model. Moving from one household to two is a normal transition in today's world. Attendees will learn how this model treats the transition with reverence and respect while keeping the needs of the family and children at the forefront.

Please join us for an informative presentation that will cover the following topics:

- What is Collaborative Divorce?
- How does Collaborative Divorce work?
- What constitutes the Full Team Model?
- Working effectively within an interdisciplinary team
- Benefits and challenges of practicing Collaborative Divorce
- Financial aspects of Collaborative Divorce

The Collaborative Divorce model is multi-dimensional, challenging and enriching. Based on the interest of the attendees of this session and their colleagues, CDI will return in the spring with a full team of trainers to provide a complete, interdisciplinary, three-day training session in the protocols for Collaborative Divorce.
